AFFAIRS (SHRI I. K. GUJRAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Attempts have been made at the official level to find out from the Russion authorities the basis of such reports in the media. In response, we were informed by the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs on 8 January, 1992 that "according to the data in the Central and Republican Archives, no information whatsoever is available on the stay of the former President of the Indian National Congress, Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, in the Soviet Union in 1945 and in subsequent years", and on 27 October, 1995 that "as a result of the investigations carried out at the Central Archival Collection of the Federal Security Service of Russia, and the Russian Centre for Retention and Perusal of Documents of Modern History, no information whatsoever has come to light on the stay of Subhas Chandra Bose on the territory of the former USSR in 1945 and in subsequent years".

Indo-China cooperation at international fora

2628. SHRI ASHOK MITRA: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the opportunity of the recent visit of President of the People's Republic of China was availed of to discuss the possibility of adopting a common approach by the two countries on issues concerning the World Trade Organisation; and

(b) whether joint approaches of a similar nature by the two countries are contemplated for discussions and negotiations with United Nations agencies and international financial institutions?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI I. K. GUJRAL): (a) and (b) During the recent visit of President Jiang Zemin to India, wide ranging discussions on issues of mutual interest were held. Both sides agreed on the need for establishing a constructive and cooperative relationship into the 21st Century. The two countries also agreed to expand bilateral economic cooperation.

Chaina is not yet a member of the WTO. India and China have established a cooperative working relationship in the United Nations and other international and regional fora. Our views on issues of primary concern to developing countries, namely, developmental issues, economic growth, creation of an open, just, equitable, rule-based and non-discriminatory global macro-economic environment, environment, and social development are largely similar. The two sides agree that dialogue on regional and international issues and cooperation in international fora are mutually beneficial and must be expanded.
